Index Volume 24 (1980)

Subjects

Adolescents, disturbed —, 210-2.
After-care
for hostages, 84-5; of juveniles in Scotland, 217.
Aggression
and society, 132-3; (female) determinants of, 260-9.
Alcoholics
borderline —, 32-40; sober —, 36-9.
Alcoholism
and interpersonal relationship, 37-8; and probation, 226-33.
Alternative treatment of juveniles (Scotland), 215-25.
American Indians, suicide in jail of, 162-66.
Antabuse, 34-5.
Antisocial offenders, rehabilitation of, 171-8.
Anyradhapura Open Prison Camp (Sri-Lanka), 81.
Arrest and trial, 11-19.
Assassins, common characteristics of, 41-57.
Banishment as an alternative to maximum security prison, 67-80.
Bargaining (plea), 11-9.
Battered wives, 128-33.
Behavioral change in prison, 184.
Borderline
— alcoholic patients, 33-4; —individuals, concept of, 32-40; — personality disorders, 32.
Bullpen, 11-9 & 134.
BVSS (Bristol Victim Support Scheme), 133.
Captivity, long-term effects of, 85-6.
Change in prison environment to reduce stress, 107-16.
Child molestation (girls) and disturbed adolescents, 207-8.
Childhood disturbances, 209-10.
Children
fighting between —, 149-61.
Children's Hearings (Scotland), 215-6 & 220-2.
Classification of disturbed adolescents, 204-6.
Community Service
(England) development and difficulties, 227 & 234-40; (Sri-Lanka), 82.
Consciousness, altered state of, 38-9.
Convicts and transportation, 67-80.
Cook Co. Jail (Chicago), rehabilitative education at, 87-9.
Coping of long-term prisoners, 241-3.
Correction, new model for, 67-80.
Correctional alternatives, re-examination of, 179-92.
Correctional officers in open prison camp (Sri-Lanka), 83; and training, 75-7.
Court trial and sentencing, 134-48.
Crime
and socio-economic factors, 273; — trends in the world, 270-7; and victimization, 132.
Criminal Justice Act 1972 (England), 226-35.
Criminal language, 11-9.
Criminal Law, understanding —, 11-9.
Criminals
disturbed —, managing, 117-27; and their victims, 128-33.
Day centres for inadequates (England), 226-33.
Defeatism, 130.
Delinquency
and environment, 130; and fighting, 149-61; — devolution, 58-66.
Delinquents (antisocial), group therapy with, 171-8.
Depression in prison, 107-16 & 134-48.
Deterioration of long-term prisoners, 241-3.
Discharge from prison, 134-48.
Disturbed adolescents
definition of, 203-4; and family life, 210-2.
Disturbed criminals, managing, 117-27.
DSM-III's (1978) and personality disorders, 32-40.
Dyskinesia (tardive) and neuroleptic drugs, 168 & 290-2.
Economic pressure and juvenile delinquency, 214 & 270-7.
Education, rehabilitative, 87-9.
Enemies, making friends of, 84-6.
Environment
and arousal, 108-9; and delinquency, 128-33; and violence, 107-16; change in prison — to reduce stress, 107-16.
Exile, banishment and transportation, 67-80.
Family life
and disturbed adolescents, 201-12; and the imprisonment of the wife, 249-59.
Female aggression, determinants of, 260-9.
Fighting
and delinquency, 153-9; and mental illness, 160.
Firearms and violence, 41-57 & 117-27.
Group dynamics, 27.
Group therapy conditions for, 27-31; possibilities and pitfalls, 27-31; with antisocial delinquents, 171-8.

Home leave from prison (Sri-Lanka), 81-2.
Hostages, after-care for, 85-6.
Imprisonment of the wife, effect on family life, 246-59.
Indians (American), suicide in prison of, 162-6.
Institute of Mental Health (Rhode Island), 149-61.
Institutions,
life in mental —, 278-89; violence in, 167-70.
Internalization, 189.
Interpersonal distance (in prison), 107-16.
Iwahig Penal Colony (Philippines), 77.
Juvenile delinquency and economic pressure, 214; and fighting, 149-61; and liberalization of women, 214; and social changes, 212-4; and snipers, 55-6; socialization of, 58-66.
Juvenile offenders and Community Service (England), 234-40; group therapy with, 171-8; and probation order (Scotland), 217; and social changes, 212-4 socialization of, 58-66.
Kopay Open Prison Camp (Sri-Lanka), 81.
Lawrence District Court Clinic (Mass.), 38.
Liberalization of women and juvenile delinquency, 214.
Life, inability to cope with, 22-3.
Life-sentence prisoners, deterioration and coping, 241-3.
Making friends of enemies, 84-6.
Managing the man with the gun, 117-27.
Marriage, influence of imprisonment on, 249-59.
Maturation, 65-6.
Mental health and violence, 149-61.
Mental institutions, life in, 278-89.
Monotony and prison violence, 107-16.
Moral Re-armament Movement, 27.
Neuroleptic drugs, dangerous side-effects of, 169 & 290-2.
Offenders
antisocial —, 171-8; female —, effect of the imprisonment of the wife on family life, 249-59; female — and vocational rehabilitative programs, 267-9.
Offender treatment program (New Mexico), 171-8.
Offender therapy (see also: Psychotherapy) with antisocial offenders, 201-12; and Community Service (England), 226-40; with disturbed adolescents, 201-12; and group therapy, 27-31; and probation (Scotland), 215-25; and rehabilitative education, 87-9; v. punishment, 179-92.
ONU (World crime trends), 270-7.
Open prison, selection for, 81-2.
Open prison camps (Sri-Lanka), 81-3.
Overcrowding in prison and violence, 107-16.
PACE (Programmed Activities for Correctional Education), 87-9.
Pallekello Open Work Camp (Sri-Lanka), 81-2.
Parental rejection and disturbed adolescents, 201-12.
Parole and juvenile offenders (Scotland), 215-25.
Personality disorder, 33.
and alcoholism, 33-5.
Pitfalls in group therapy, 30-1.
Placements, 60-1.
Plea-bargaining, 11-9.
Poland, the effect of imprisonment on the family life of women convicts, 249-59.
Police officers and the man with the gun, 117-27.
Possibilities and pitfalls in group therapy, 27-31.
Pre-sentence, the role of the criminal lawyer, 11-19.
Prison,
behavioral change in, 179-92; debilitating effect of, 107-16 & 134-48 discharge from, 134-48; suicide in, 162-66; — without guards (Sri-Lanka), 244-8.
Prison depression, 107-16 & 134-48.
Prison environment, the debilitating effect of, 107-16 & 134-48.
Prisoners
(long-term), deterioration and coping, 241-3; suicide of, 162-6.
Probation
(juveniles) in Scotland, 215-25; — order (Scotland), 217; — Service (England), 226-40.
Probation officers, work of (England), 226-34.
Psychiatric diagnosis and suicide in jail, 162-6.
Psychodynamics
prison — 11-19; of assassins and snipers, 41-57 & 117-27.
Psychopathology and prisoners' suicide, 162-6.
Psychotherapy (see also Offender Therapy) difficulties in dealing with offenders, 11-19; with disturbed adolescents, 201-12; the need to give hope in —, 20-6.
Physical abuse and disturbed adolescents, 201-12.

Punishment as deterrent, 179-92.
Reality therapy, the essence of, 20-6.
Recidivism, reducing —, 171-92 & 244-48.
Rehabilitation of antisocial offenders, 171-78; (Scotland), 215-25; of delinquents, 58-66; (Sri-Lanka), 244-8; — theory v. punishment, 179-92.
Rehabilitative education, 87-9.
Schizophrenic's own story, 278-89.
Scotland, social work and the treatment of offenders in, 215-25.
Self-destructive attitude, 129-30.
Sentencing and trial, 11-9 & 134-48.
Sexual abuse and disturbed adolescents, 206-8.
Sieges, captors and captives, the tension that affects —, 84-6.
Snipers
and police officers, 117-27; and suicidal behavior, 41-57.
Sober alcoholic patients, treatment of, 32-40.
Social changes and delinquency, 212-4 & 270-7.
Social work and the treatment of offenders in Scotland, 215-25.
Socialization
and Community Service (England) 234-40; of juvenile delinquents, 58-66; 87-9 & 171-8; and Probation Service (England) 226-33; and rehabilitative education, 87-9.
Solitary confinement in prison, effect of, 107-16.
Spacial intrusion in prison, 109-12.
Sri-Lanka, prison without guards in, 244-8.
Stress and environment in prison, 107-16.
Suicidal behavior among snipers, 41-57.
Suicide in prison of American Indians, 162-6.
Swatantrapur Colony (India), 77.
Tardive dyskinesia, 168 & 290-2.
Technology and juvenile delinquency, 212-4.
Through-care in England 226-40.
Transportation, exile and banishment, 67-80.
Treatment (see also Offender Therapy and Psychotherapy) of borderline alcoholics, 32-40; vital issues in, 20-6; 32-40; 201-11 & 215-25; within the community, 189 & 234-40.
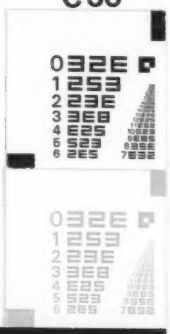
Tres Marias Colony (Mexico), 77-8.
Trial and bargaining, 11-9.
Urbanization and juvenile delinquency, 212-4.
Violence
and environmental factors, 107-16; and firearms, 244-57 & 117-27; in institutions, 167-70 & 278-89; and mental illness, 160; in prison, 107-16.
Violent behavior, non-predictability of, 149-61.
Violent patients, behavioral principles to control — 167-70.
Victims,
and criminals, 128-33; and lack of forethought and commonsense, 130-3.
Village community and prison camp (Sri-Lanka), 144-8.
Women
determinants of female aggression, 260-9; the effect of imprisonment of the wife on family life (Poland), 249-59.
World crime trends, 270-7.

Authors and Titles

Anonymous: Arrest and Trial: The Bullpen, 11-9.
The County Jail, 134-48.
"Heaven and Hell": A Schizophrenic's Own Story, 278-89.
Bauermeister, M.: Is Fighting Normal, Delinquent, or a Sign of Mental Illness? 149-61.
Bowker, L. H.: Exile, Banishment and Transportation, 67-80.
Brown, W. K. & Gable, R. J.: Socialization of Delinquents, 58-66.
Danto, B. L.: The Boomerang Bullet: Suicide among Snipers and Assassins, 41-57.
Managing the Man with the Gun, 117-27.
Delgoda, J. P.: Recent Prison Reforms in Sri-Lanka, 81-3.
Prison Without Guards, 244-8.
Gable, R. J. — See Brown, W. K. & Gable, R. J.
Eccleston, J.: Stress—Making Friends of Enemies: After-Care Important for Hostages, 85-6.
Hankoff, L. D.: Prisoner Suicide, 162-6.
Lowry, P.: Advise, Assist, Befriend . . . and More, 226-33.
Mahaffey, L. W. — See Roundtree, G. A.; Mohan, B. & Mahaffey, L. W.
Matthews, W. M. — See Reid, W. H. & Matthews, W. M.
Mohan, B. — See Roundtree, G. A.; Mohan, B. & Mahaffey, L. W.
Pankratz, L.: An Historical Note on the Use of Behavioral Principles to Control Violent Patients, 167-70.

Pelka-Slugocka, M. D. & Slugocki, L.: The Impact of Imprisonment on the Family Life of Women Convicts, 249-59.
Peretti, P. O.: Rehabilitative Education, 87-9.
Potter, E. — See Pye, M. & Potter, E.
Pye, M. & Potter, E.: Dangerous Side-Effects of Neuroleptic Drugs, 290-2.
Ralphs, P.: Community Service: A Going Concern, But Where to? 234-40.
Reid, W. H. & Matthews, W. M.: A Wilderness Experience Treatment Program for Antisocial Offenders, 171-8.
Rizzo, N. D.: Group Therapy: Possibilities and Pitfalls, 27-31.
Roundtrees, G. A.: Mohan, B. & Mahaffey, L. W.: Determinants of Female Aggression: A Study of a Prison Population, 260-9.
Sargant, W.: Stress — Making Friends of Enemies: A Psychiatrist on the Tension that Affects Sieges, Captors and Captives, 84-5.
Schmideberg, M.: The Essence of Reality Therapy—The Need to Give Hope, 20-6.
Criminals and their Victims, 128-33.
Scott, E. M.: The Borderline Alcoholic, 32-40.
Disturbed Adolescents, 20-12.
Slugocki, L. See Pelka-Slugocka, M. D: & Slugocki, L:
Suedfeld, P.: Environmental Effects on Violent Behavior in Prison, 107-16.
Tahourdin, B.: Social Changes and Juvenile Delinquency, 212-4.
Life-Sentence Prisoners: Deterioration and Coping, 241-3:
Viccica, A. D.: World Crime Trends, 270-7.
Wilson, A.: Social Work and the Treatment of Offenders in Scotland, 215-25.
Wright, K. N.: A Re-Examination of Correctional Alternatives, 179-92.



C30